

Some of the

BROTHERS

Best New Books

19

22

NIGHTS AND DAYS ON THE GYPSY TRAIL*By Irving Brown*

"As a picture of the Gypsy dancers, singers and bull-fighters of Spain, and as a portrayal of Gypsy character, viewed always from the inside, it is among the few really good books depicting Gypsy life. Gypsy lovers everywhere as they read it will experience that rare feeling of exaltation that comes to them on reading a Gypsy classic, for Irving Brown's Gitanos are the real thing and instinct with life."—T. W. Thompson, Hon. Sec. The Gypsy Lore Society, England. $3.00

THE VEHEMENT FLAME*By Margaret Deland*

The most talked of novel on marriage in America. . . . "These people live. The springs that animate them are revealed emotionally. We feel them."—St. Paul Daily News. $2.00

THE DUST FLOWER*By Basil King*

The story of a present day Cinderella. A man is betrothed to a society girl and is secretly married to a waif. A new version and new solving of the triangle by the author of The Inner Shrine. $2.00

SOME DISTINGUISHED AMERICANS*By Harvey O'Higgins*

"No one, it seems to us, can tell a story with such a convincing air of perfect candor as Mr. O'Higgins. We like these and find them excellent reading."—N. P. D., New York Globe. $2.00

THE MAN WHO KNEW TOO MUCH*By Gilbert K. Chesterton*

The most thrilling detective stories since Sherlock Holmes and Craig Kennedy—a criminal hunter in high circles who always got his quarry but never brought them to justice because "he knew too much." $2.00

RACKHOUSE*By George Agnew Chamberlain*

A romance of the new lawlessness of smuggling something stronger than tea. . . . "A highly thrilling thriller." New York Herald. . . . "A lively and entertaining tale." New York Times. $1.90

TALES OF LONELY TRAILS*By Zane Grey*

"Exploring and hunting trips in little known regions, described with a zest that imparts its spirit to the reader."—The Outlook. "Out of the great West's most wonderful book of facts, these pages ought to live."—The New York World. Illustrated with photographs taken by the author. $3.00

NAPOLEON: From the Tuileries to St. Helena*By Louis Etienne St. Denis*

The author of this amazing intimate document, hitherto unpublished, was Napoleon's closest attendant from the peaceful days at Versailles to the end at St. Helena. He gives a picturesque and personal account of the Emperor with side lights on the Imperial regime. $3.00

AMERICANS BY CHOICE*By John P. Garitt*

The eighth in the Carnegie Corporation Americanization Studies. "A fresh and wholly original contribution to an understanding of the factors in the making of Americans out of those who have chosen America for their country."—Editorial, New York Times. $2.50

THE STOCK MARKET BAROMETER*By William Peter Hamilton*

Mr. Hamilton, Editor of the Wall Street Journal, explains according to Dow's theory how the stock market movement forecasts price levels months ahead. Of interest to everyone with money to invest or goods to buy. $3.00

FROM SEVEN TO SEVENTY*By Edward Simmons*

The varied career of a great American artist is revealed in this delightful book of reminiscences, ranging from the literary circle of "Cousin Waldo" Emerson in New England to buying beers for Verlaine in Paris. Hawthorne, Thoreau, Charles Sumner, John Brown, Whistler, Rosa Bonheur, Abbott Thayer, Zorn and a host of others, artists and men of the world, appear from the life in his vivid and always amusing fund of anecdotes. $4.00

THE MIND IN THE MAKING*By James Harvey Robinson*

"If some magical transformation could be produced in men's ways of looking at themselves and their fellows, no inconsiderable part of the evils which now afflict society would vanish or remedy themselves automatically," says James Harvey Robinson, in this startling book, which is today changing the thinking of the world. H. G. Wells said that after reading it he had "the sense of having crossed a ridge and come into a new land of understanding." The Mind in The Making is on all lists of best sellers. $2.50

HISTORY OF ART*By Elie Faure*

In four volumes, profusely illustrated, this is the complete and definitive history of art. The Dial calls it: "The most interesting and seductive history of the subject that has yet appeared. . . . His pages gleam with brilliant images. . . . His narrative gifts are remarkable." New York Herald says: "Always he sees the poets and artists writing and painting unconsciously in larger figures than they know—the true historians of the world."

Volume I "Ancient Art" $6.00, Volume II "Mediaeval Art" $7.50, In preparation Volume III "Renaissance Art" and Volume IV "Modern Art."

THE KAISER'S MEMOIRS*Wilhelm II., Emperor of Germany, 1888-1918*

"Will be read all over the world even to its remotest corners—it is not every day that an ex-Emperor writes his 'apologia' for his part in the most tremendous events in history—and it will be read with absorbed interest, commented upon lavishly, used as fuel for hot controversy lasting far into the years that follow."—T. R. Ybarra. The English translation of these memoirs was carefully read and corrected by the Kaiser himself. $3.50

HER UNWELCOME HUSBAND*By W. L. George*

"Perhaps the best characterization of the modern woman, who subordinates emotion to intelligence."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat. "Filled with rare knowledge of feminine psychology."—Washington Times. $2.00

FLOWING GOLD*By Rex Beach*

"A romance of the oil fields. Brimful of action, of novelty of scene, and peopled with characters that live."—Philadelphia Public Ledger. "A fascinating yarn by a master spinner of tales."—Tulsa Tribune. $2.00

HIRONDELLE*By Henry C. Rowland*

"Scenes at sea, finely fashioned, and the picturesque atmosphere of piracy envelops the action with a romantic tinge that should hold the most jaded reader." New York Times. $1.90

IN JEOPARDY*By Van Tassel Sutphen*

"A secret passage, a confession in code, an amateur detective, misplaced suspicions, and numerous clues on which the reader is allowed to exercise his ingenuity until the exciting denouement."—Literary Review. $1.90

JOAN OF ARC OF THE NORTH WOODS*By Holman Day*

"It is a stirring story of love, violence and intrigue, one in which the action never lags. As clean in its atmosphere and telling as the snows on the slope of Haleb Mountain."—Boston Herald. $2.00

HOWARD PYLE'S BOOK OF PIRATES

With seventeen full color illustrations and twenty four in black and white.

"No one before or since has succeeded in portraying the sea rover with his convincing spirit."—New York Evening Post. "The book of books for a gift. . . . These are real pirates described by a skillful writer and pictured by a great artist."—The Independent. $6.00

A WORLD WORTH WHILE*By W. A. Rogers*

Delightful anecdotes—intimate reminiscences—amusing drawings by the famous cartoonist of the New York Herald. "Always entertaining reminiscences of the prominent men and the historical events which he pictured for the world."—Boston Herald. $3.00

THE ADVENTURES OF TOM SAWYER*By Mark Twain*

This beautifully illustrated gift book has been brought out to supply the demand for a finer edition of this famous Mark Twain classic. With full color wrapper, cover insert and frontispiece, and sixteen illustrations by Worth Brahm. A book you will eventually have to have—why not this Christmas? $2.50

THE PRINCE AND THE PAUPER*By Mark Twain*

Grown-ups are delighted to discover this beautiful gift edition of the story which Mark Twain preferred above all among his own works. With full-color frontispiece, wrapper, cover insert and eight full-color illustrations by Franklin Booth. This book solves at least one Christmas problem with sure satisfaction. $2.50

BUBBLE BOOKS "that Sing"By Ralph Mayhew and Burges Johnson

If You Want to Give Pleasure—give Bubble Books.

You are giving a whole store-full of youth's happiness, the wonderful people and toys and games of imagination, and the joy of a singing heart, with each Bubble Book.

A Bubble Book is a brightly colored picture book of all the loved people of story days—and three child's phonograph records to bring them all to real life.

Just think of the fun of having a picture book that talks and sings! Doesn't it suggest untold possibilities to you of the joy it would have been to you when you were a child? It is like giving an Aladdin's Lamp or a Fairy wand.

There are fourteen Bubble Books, each with three records. They are only one dollar a book, at all book, department and phonograph stores, stationers and toy shops, or direct from the publishers— $1.00

HARPER & BROTHERS

Established 1817

NEW YORK